

BORDER
CRICKET

BUFFALOpark
It's more than cricket

PRESS RELEASE

16 November 2015

USSA – B NATIONAL CRICKET WEEK

The University of Fort Hare in conjunction with Border Cricket will be hosting the annual USSA (University's) B National Cricket Week for the second consecutive year. The National cricket week will run from 24 – 27 November 2015 in East London.

The games will be played in and around East London and 7 teams will be participating in the tournament. The final matches will be played on Friday 27 November. The teams participating in the tournament are from tertiary institutions and include:

1. University of Limpopo
2. Durban University of Technology
3. Mangosuthu University
4. University of Zululand
5. University of Fort Hare
6. University of Venda
7. Sefako Makgatho University (Medunsa)

The format and final fixture list will be finalised in the next few days.

The Welcome function will be held on Monday 23 November and the closing function will be held on Friday 27 November. Both functions will take place at Buffalo Park.

The tournament gives opportunity to aspiring young cricketers to shine and perform at their best. This tournament has been the main conduit for South Africa's most talented tertiary students.

"These young cricketers look forward to playing and meeting equally talented cricketers from all over the country. Participating in this tournament must be the epitome of success for any student who enjoys cricket," said CEO of Border Cricket, Thando Boo.

Border Cricket would also like to acknowledge the Department of Sport, Recreation Arts and Culture for their generous sponsorship towards this event.

For more information please contact the Tournament Organizer, Deon Muller on 043-7099709

ENDS